Transformational Leadership: Creating High Performance Work Teams

Wednesday, September 13, 2017, 8:00 am to 11:00 am,
Oregon-Columbia Chapter 601 NE Everett St, Portland, OR 97232

Companies invest millions of dollars in technology, equipment and technical training for improved performance and productivity, with little to no investment in the human interaction side of leadership. Well-intentioned managers, supervisors and foremen create barriers to success, never realizing the negative impact they may have on subordinates, bosses or peers. This program is designed to identify and eliminate potential blind spots to those behaviors which could be sabotaging performance and create dysfunctional cultures impacting safety, quality and productivity.

Following this course, participants will be able to:

- Discuss self-awareness and emotional intelligence skills that lead to transformational leadership and positive culture change
- Explain how to establish a culture of trust and open communications at all levels of the organization
- Describe improved leadership skills that lead to employee engagement and high performance work team

This course will be facilitated by Bruce Bolger.
